

Directions to Camp Seely

Camp Seely is approximately 75 miles from Los Angeles.
The estimated travel time is 1-1/2 to 2 hrs.

From Los Angeles, San Fernando Valley and San Gabriel Valley

Take the 210 Freeway east to San Bernardino, and exit on Waterman Ave. (Highway 18). Turn left. Water will start climbing the mountains. Shortly after the 4,000 ft. level sign, There is a Crestline / Lake Arrowhead road division. Take the Crestline (Hwy. 138) turnoff. At the 4-way stop sign and intersection in town, cross the intersection, and turn left at the Hwy. 138 sign. Stay on 138 for about five minutes. There are a couple of forks in the road. Stay on 138. Do not turn on Seeley Way. That isn't where the camp is located. When you reach a flat, open area, you will see the camp entrance on the left with a wood sign saying Camp Seely. Turn into the entrance. You will see the cabins on the right side, and the lodge on the left. Parking is next to the cabins.

From Orange County

Take the 91 Freeway east to Interstate 215 north to the 210 Freeway east. Exit on Waterman Ave., turn left, and follow the rest of the directions above.

Additional Freeways

Take Interstate 10 or the 60 Freeway east to Interstate 215 North to the 210 Freeway east. Exit on Waterman Ave., turn Left, and follow the rest of the directions above.